

SEND US YOUR STARS OF TECHNOLOGY!

CCG's Women of Color Magazine | Technology Awards Edition, Nov/Dec 2006

Do you know a high-achieving woman in technology? If so, we want to know!

In the November/December Edition of CCG's Women of Color magazine, we will honor two groups of role models we call the Technology All-Stars and the Rising Stars of Technology. These women will also headline a special event at the 11th Annual National Women of Color Technology Awards Conference in October.

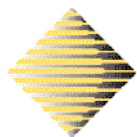

We are accepting candidates now!

Technology All-Stars are accomplished women of color advanced in their careers, who have demonstrated excellence as leaders at work and in their communities.

Rising Stars are minority women early in their careers who have been outstanding in helping shape technology for the future.

Complete the attached form and send us your nominees for the annual Technology All-Stars and Rising Stars of Technology articles by April 27, 2006. Please include a color photo and a short bio of your candidates. A copy of our photo guidelines is also attached.

Call your Women of Color account executive today for more information!
